firm

For two decades, our founding members have grown KSLN into one of the region's most successful and respected firms by treating people well and getting results. Whether we're negotiating deals in the conference room or trying cases in the courtroom, we know what it takes to win.

Headquartered in Buffalo's historic Calumet Building, we have offices and team members throughout New York State and in Pennsylvania. Our regional footprint delivers economies of scale and value for our clients, and gives us extensive knowledge of the particular rules, procedures, and cultures of the state and federal courts.

Established in 1994 as an insurance coverage and defense litigation practice, we are proud to serve many of our original clients, even as we attract new ones. By staying true to our time-tested principles and never resting on our successes, we strike the perfect balance of respecting our clients' resources while continuing the relentless pursuit of excellence.
